supporting our community.

Volunteer Driver – Kingsway North Community Fridge (Food Collection Role)

Location: Aldi Blaby & The Winstanley School.

Time commitment: Thursday lunchtime (approx. 12.30pm–1.30pm), rota basis

Do you want to make a difference in your community? The Braunstone Community Fridge helps reduce food waste and support local families by collecting and sharing surplus food.

We are looking for volunteer drivers who can:

- Collect food donations from Aldi in Blaby at 12.45 on Thursdays.
- Transport food back to the Winstanley School Family Hub to be stored for the Community Fridge.
- Work as part of a rota if several volunteers join.

Requirements:

- Full driving licence and access to your own car.
- Willingness to complete a Food Hygiene Certificate (provided free of charge).
- Reliability and a positive community spirit!

This is a fantastic way to support local families, help tackle food waste, and meet new people.

Volunteer Role – Community Fridge Helper

Location: Kingsway North Community Fridge, The Family Hub on the Winstanley School site

Time commitment: Fridays, 1.00–3.15pm (school term time, rota basis)

The Kingsway North Community Fridge is looking for friendly and reliable volunteers to help us run our weekly sessions.

As a volunteer, you'll:

- Help set up before opening.
- Welcome service users and have friendly conversations.
- Support with giving out donations.
- Assist with packing away at the end.

We provide:

- Free training + Food Hygiene Certificate.
- A supportive team environment.
- DBS check (essential for all volunteers – arranged and paid for by us).

If you'd like to meet new people, give something back to your community, and help reduce food waste, we'd love to hear from you.
